The new specification is linear rather than modular. Much of the content is identical to the previous specification but there are also some changes.

AQA | Summary of changes (A-level)

A market is one of the many varieties of systems, institutions, procedures, social relations and infrastructures whereby parties engage in exchange. While parties may exchange goods and services by barter, most markets rely on sellers offering their goods or services (including labor) in exchange for money from buyers. It can be said that a market is the process by which the prices of goods and ...
